LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(4.) To provide courses of instruction in all branches of a liberal education, including morals, ethics, and religion, and to arrange for the delivery and holding of lectures, exhibitions, classes, and conferences calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the cause of education, or conduce to the welfare of the students attending such school:

(5.) To enter into an agreement or arrangement with any Board of School Trustees, or any City or Municipal Council, or Provincial Department of Education, or any University or other body in charge of or concerned in any branch of public education in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, whereby the Company may undertake the conduct of any part of the educational work for the time being carried on by such body or authority upon such terms as may from time to time be decided:

(6.) To provide for the examination from time to time of any such students by approved examiners or examining bodies; to give certificates to successful candidates, and to present such scholarships, prizes, and pecuniary or other awards as shall facilitate or encourage proficiency in the subjects taught or courses provided, as well as industry and good behaviour:

(7.) To make and enforce all such general rules, orders, and regulations as may be necessary or proper to maintain discipline and carry on effectually the work of such school:

(8.) To determine and exact such tuition fees, rates, and charges for board and other services provided as the directors of the Company may think fit to impose:

(9.) To promote and carry on a girl-guides' troop or organization for physical training, and all such summer and winter sports or pastimes as may be deemed suitable; and to arrange competitions, games, and sports of any (or all) kind; to grant or contribute towards prizes, awards, and distinctions in connection therewith, and to do or provide for all acts and things necessary for and incidental to the proper care and management of the same:

(10.) To purchase, hire, or otherwise acquire books, periodicals, stationery, scientific and other instruments and apparatus, and generally all such educational, athletic, and other supplies and equipment necessary or suitable for any such school, and to utilize, sell, turn to account, let out on hire, or otherwise deal with or dispose of same:

(11.) To engage masters, tutors, managers, and agents:

(12.) To effect such insurance in relation to the carrying on of the Company's business, and any risks incidental thereto as may seem expedient, and to insure the lives of any of its managers, directors, or employees for the Company's own benefit:

(13.) To purchase, acquire and deal in goods, wares, merchandise, and chattels of whatever nature including all kinds of stores and provisions required by teachers, students, and employees attending such school or residing therein, and to sell or dispose of or distribute the same or any part thereof to or among the members of the Company or any persons or bodies corporate:

(14.) To adopt such means of making known any such school as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, and by publication of papers or periodicals:

(15.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(g.) To acquire, either by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, any improved or unimproved lands in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over and in connection with land, and to lease, sell, exchange, or mortgage or otherwise deal with or encumber any such lands or any interest therein, and to build, contract for, or construct any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company, and to use, manage, lease, sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, exchange, or otherwise any personal property, chattels, chattels real, fixtures, or other effects required in connection with the Company's business or undertaking or otherwise, and to sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(i.) To invest, lend, or deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(k.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company at present or hereafter acquired or its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, and chattel mortgages, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, or other obligations:

(l.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets to any person, firm, or company and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities, of any other company:

(m.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (Provincial, local, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(n.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, stock or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(o.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(p.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(q.) To establish or promote any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operations which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(r.) To guarantee the obligations of any companies or persons carrying on any business or operations which shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and in particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing words, to guarantee the payment of dividends on shares or the payment of interest on debentures of any such company, and to guarantee the payment of moneys secured by or payable under or in respect of contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, or securities of any such person or company, and the due performance and discharge of any and all contracts by any such person or company:

(s.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company or in the conduct of its business, or in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(w.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada or in any of the United States of America or in any other country or place:

(x.) To establish depots in any part of Canada or in any other country for the carrying-on of the said business:

(y.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in conjunction with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(z.) To aid in the establishment and support of associations or institutions calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company; to provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company or formerly in the employment of the Company, and the widows and children of such persons and others dependent on them, by granting moneys or pensions, providing schools, reading-rooms, places of recreation, or subscribing to sick or benefit clubs or societies; to subscribe for or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or any exhibition, and generally for any purpose which may seem likely, whether directly or indirectly, to promote the development of the business of the Company or to prevent its contraction, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(aa.) To do or engage in any of the aforesaid matters or things, whether the same may be necessary or convenient for or incidental to the main business or objects of the Company or otherwise howsoever.

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire the motor vessel "Hurry On," now registered at the Port of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, together with all her boats, furniture, apparel, and other requisite equipment:

(b.) To pay for the said motor vessel in cash or shares of the Company, or partly in shares and partly in cash, or by the assumption of any indebtedness now outstanding as a debt by way of mortgage on the said vessel, or to pay for the same in such manner as the directors of the Company may prescribe:

(c.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, repair, or otherwise acquire, steamers, tugs, barges, steamships, and other vessels, with all equipment, furniture, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, merchandise, mails, and chattels of all kinds:

(d.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land and water, ship-owners, warehousemen, wharfingers, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents:

(e.) To purchase goods, wares, produce, cattle and other live stock, and any other merchandise or chattels of any kind whatsoever for the purpose of freighting such ships as the Company may acquire, and to dispose of the same by sale or otherwise:

(f.) To carry on the business of ship-owners in all its branches:

(g.) To employ as ship's husband and managing agent and managing owner of any vessel of the Company any person, firm, or company, whether limited or not, and that although he or they may not be entitled to any share or interest in the said vessel in question or in the Company:

(h.) To purchase, lease, take by licence or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(i.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate, any real and personal property wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(j.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(m.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(n.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(o.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts as may be determined by the Company of the purchase moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

- (p.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its unrecalled capital:
- (q.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

- (r.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:
- (s.) To do all such things as are, in the opinion of the directors, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.
